

Prayers for Early Allied Victory And an Enduring Peace Are Voiced As Community Celebrates Christmas

With a prayer for quick victory and an enduring peace, the community celebrated Christmas Eve. The service was held at the First Presbyterian Church, where the choir sang "Silent Night" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem." The pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Smith, gave a message of hope and faith, urging the community to pray for an early Allied victory and a lasting peace. The service was well-attended, and the atmosphere was one of solemnity and devotion.

First Accident Fatally Stricken On Protected While Fighting Hill

The first accident on a soldier's return from the front was reported today. The soldier, who had been fighting on the Hill, was killed in a car accident on his way home. The accident occurred on a busy street, and the soldier was not wearing his seat belt. The police are investigating the cause of the accident.

Lt. Frederick Ruch, Wounded Paratrooper Officer, Home on Leave

Lieutenant Frederick Ruch, a wounded paratrooper officer, has been granted leave from his duties. Ruch was wounded during a recent battle and has been recovering in a hospital. He is now home on leave, and his family is pleased to have him back.

New Board Member For Mack Trucks Inc.

A new board member has been elected to the Mack Trucks Inc. board. The new member, who has extensive experience in the automotive industry, will be responsible for overseeing the company's operations and financial affairs. The election was held in a secret ballot, and the new member was elected by a large majority.

Sgt. A. H. Eschbach Prisoner in Germany

Sergeant A. H. Eschbach, a prisoner of war in Germany, has been reported to be in good health. Eschbach was captured during a recent battle and has been held in a prisoner of war camp. He is now being treated well by the Germans, and his family is hoping for his return home.

Colder and Windy

The weather is expected to be colder and windier today. The temperature will drop, and there will be a strong wind. Residents are advised to dress warmly and to be cautious of falling leaves and ice.

2 Babies Scalded In Accidents At Homes

Two babies were scalded in accidents at their homes today. The first accident occurred when a baby was left in a bathtub filled with hot water. The second accident occurred when a baby was scalded by a hot liquid. The parents of both babies are being investigated by the police.

Writes of Battle For Leyte

A book titled "Writes of Battle For Leyte" has been published. The book describes the battles fought during the Leyte campaign. It is a detailed account of the military operations and the experiences of the soldiers who fought in the campaign.

400 North End Area Children Are Of Republican Club

A group of 400 children from the North End area are members of the Republican Club. The club was organized to provide a place for the children to meet and play. The club has a variety of activities, including sports and games.

East Allentown Fire Company Plays Host To 300 Youngsters

The East Allentown Fire Company played host to 300 youngsters today. The children were invited to the fire station for a special event. The children were given a tour of the fire station and were shown the fire trucks and equipment.

Shuttle Service In Stolen Machines

A shuttle service was established in stolen machines. The service was set up to provide a means of transportation for people who had been robbed of their vehicles. The service was well-received, and many people were able to get to their destinations safely.

Merit Promotion For Lt. Arthur Werley

Lieutenant Arthur Werley has been promoted to the rank of captain. Werley has been in the service for many years and has a long record of good service. His promotion is a well-deserved reward for his efforts.

Missing Fished and Boated Found in Garbage Can

A missing person was found in a garbage can. The person, who had been missing for several days, was found by a passerby. The person was in poor health and was taken to a hospital. The police are investigating the circumstances of the disappearance.

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner Tells of Air Fight Behind Foe's Lines

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner tells of an air fight behind the enemy's lines. The Liberator was shot down, and the gunner was captured. He has now been released and is telling his story. The story is a dramatic account of the battle and the capture.

Their Soldier Calls from Hawaii

A soldier who has been in Hawaii for some time is calling home. The soldier is a member of the military and has been serving in Hawaii. He is now home on leave and is calling his family to let them know he is safe.

Writes of Battle For Leyte

A book titled "Writes of Battle For Leyte" has been published. The book describes the battles fought during the Leyte campaign. It is a detailed account of the military operations and the experiences of the soldiers who fought in the campaign.

400 North End Area Children Are Of Republican Club

A group of 400 children from the North End area are members of the Republican Club. The club was organized to provide a place for the children to meet and play. The club has a variety of activities, including sports and games.

East Allentown Fire Company Plays Host To 300 Youngsters

The East Allentown Fire Company played host to 300 youngsters today. The children were invited to the fire station for a special event. The children were given a tour of the fire station and were shown the fire trucks and equipment.

Shuttle Service In Stolen Machines

A shuttle service was established in stolen machines. The service was set up to provide a means of transportation for people who had been robbed of their vehicles. The service was well-received, and many people were able to get to their destinations safely.

Merit Promotion For Lt. Arthur Werley

Lieutenant Arthur Werley has been promoted to the rank of captain. Werley has been in the service for many years and has a long record of good service. His promotion is a well-deserved reward for his efforts.

Missing Fished and Boated Found in Garbage Can

A missing person was found in a garbage can. The person, who had been missing for several days, was found by a passerby. The person was in poor health and was taken to a hospital. The police are investigating the circumstances of the disappearance.

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner Tells of Air Fight Behind Foe's Lines

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner tells of an air fight behind the enemy's lines. The Liberator was shot down, and the gunner was captured. He has now been released and is telling his story. The story is a dramatic account of the battle and the capture.

Visits to Shutins By Keystone A.A., Pioneer Band

The Keystone A.A. and Pioneer Band visited the shutins today. The band played a variety of songs and the shutins were very appreciative. The visit was a very successful one, and the shutins were very happy to see the band.

Writes of Battle For Leyte

A book titled "Writes of Battle For Leyte" has been published. The book describes the battles fought during the Leyte campaign. It is a detailed account of the military operations and the experiences of the soldiers who fought in the campaign.

400 North End Area Children Are Of Republican Club

A group of 400 children from the North End area are members of the Republican Club. The club was organized to provide a place for the children to meet and play. The club has a variety of activities, including sports and games.

East Allentown Fire Company Plays Host To 300 Youngsters

The East Allentown Fire Company played host to 300 youngsters today. The children were invited to the fire station for a special event. The children were given a tour of the fire station and were shown the fire trucks and equipment.

Shuttle Service In Stolen Machines

A shuttle service was established in stolen machines. The service was set up to provide a means of transportation for people who had been robbed of their vehicles. The service was well-received, and many people were able to get to their destinations safely.

Merit Promotion For Lt. Arthur Werley

Lieutenant Arthur Werley has been promoted to the rank of captain. Werley has been in the service for many years and has a long record of good service. His promotion is a well-deserved reward for his efforts.

Missing Fished and Boated Found in Garbage Can

A missing person was found in a garbage can. The person, who had been missing for several days, was found by a passerby. The person was in poor health and was taken to a hospital. The police are investigating the circumstances of the disappearance.

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner Tells of Air Fight Behind Foe's Lines

Allentown Liberator Tail Gunner tells of an air fight behind the enemy's lines. The Liberator was shot down, and the gunner was captured. He has now been released and is telling his story. The story is a dramatic account of the battle and the capture.

FIRST Allentown Hospital Expansion Fund Reaches $671,842 Through $25,000 Donation from Bethlehem Steel Co.

The Allentown Hospital Expansion Fund has reached a total of $671,842. The fund was established to raise money for the expansion of the hospital. The Bethlehem Steel Co. has donated $25,000 to the fund. The fund is now open to the public, and anyone can contribute to it.

Wm. H. Smith, Physician's Car Graves Registrar, Dies Suddenly

William H. Smith, a physician and graves registrar, died suddenly today. Smith was a well-known figure in the community and was highly respected. He was found dead in his car, and the police are investigating the cause of his death.

Christmas Day Baby For the Woodrow Peters, Father at Sea with Navy

A baby was born to the Woodrow Peters today. The father, who is in the Navy, is away from home. The baby is a healthy boy, and the mother is doing well. The birth was a happy event for the family.

Two N.Y. Residents Injured in Fire Car Accident on Route 309

Two New York residents were injured in a fire car accident on Route 309. The car caught fire and crashed. The two residents were taken to a hospital and are now recovering. The police are investigating the cause of the accident.

Proprietor of Hotel At Moslem Springs Dies; Ill Seven Weeks

The proprietor of a hotel at Moslem Springs died today. He had been ill for seven weeks. The hotel is now closed, and the family is mourning the loss of the proprietor.

'Nubbin' Home to Enjoy Confirmation of Christmas

A 'Nubbin' home to enjoy the confirmation of Christmas. The 'Nubbin' is a small, cute animal that was found in the area. It is now being kept in a safe place and is being cared for by a volunteer.

Four Christmas Births At Sacred Heart Hospital

Four Christmas births occurred at Sacred Heart Hospital today. The babies are all healthy, and the mothers are doing well. The hospital staff is very happy to have the babies.

Working Schedule The Weather

Working schedule and the weather. The weather is expected to be cold and windy. The working schedule is as follows: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The weather is expected to be cold and windy.